Past Auction Winner

The Captain at Sunningdale Heath Golf Club had her charity day raising funds for the Motor Neurone Disease Association, and used our donation in a silent auction. Here's what the auction winner had to say after her MIL Pet Photography Experience:

“You capture everything so perfectly, beautifully, and completely. Your heart and your composition, and your natural ability shines through. You see beyond a picture. That is something that isn't learnt.

You get the best and most accurate depiction of a dog and its character... whilst it's not something you necessarily intend to do, in three photos you got to the heart of me... and that is priceless.

Thank you doesn't touch it.”

Su Burrows, Sunningdale Heath Golf Club

Why This Prize Is Special

This isn't a rushed photoshoot — it's a thoughtful, dog-centred magical experience designed to capture genuine personality and connection, from an award winning professional dog photographer.

By photographing dogs outdoors in natural woodland settings, sessions feel relaxed and enjoyable, allowing each dog to be themselves. The result is beautiful, authentic imagery that celebrates the bond between owner and dog.

The included Fine Art Wall Art transforms these moments into a lasting piece of artwork — something far more meaningful than a standard voucher or product.

Photography experiences consistently perform well at auctions because they are personal, emotional, and truly memorable.

“From the first contactall the way through the process to the finished article, this was a seamless, rewarding and at times quite amusing journey. Chris’ talents are not just in taking great photographs, but in understanding what preparation elements contribute to the best experience.

He had every squeaker, whistle and general noise maker available on a lanyard around his neck to ensure he got the dogs attention - and to get those perfect pictures. The sight of Chris laid down in the undergrowth at Swinley Forest on his waterproof mat in search of ‘that moment’ tells you all you need to know about going the extra mile !

It was a fantastic experience from start to finish and an everlasting tribute to the dogs who share our lives.”

John Castle, Wokingham
